

Brac University
Department of English and Humanities
ENG 110: Literature for Life
Section 1
SPRING 2026
Initial: TAY
Reflection Assessment (09/03/2026)

Total Marks 10 Submission: Turnitin

Answer any one of the following essay-type questions within 800-900 words: a) Walt Whitman's "Song of Myself" and Jalal-Uddin Rumi's "Chickpea to Cook" navigate around the phenomenon of finding one's purpose and truest self. Do you think the poems witness the totality of life and death in the ambivalent nature of one's existence with the same frequency? Explain with relevant examples.

b) Based on the readings of Rabindranath Tagore's "My Boyhood Days" and Jamaica Kincaid's "Girl", how do the colonial sentiments dictate the childhood of the speakers in the texts? Provide relevant examples.

c) Why do you think "escape" is a central theme of resilience in Margaret Cavendish's "The Blazing World" and Farah Ghuznavi's "Losing Bindu"? Provide examples to support your argument.

Rubric:

Critical Approach to the texts with specific examples	3
Analytical Approach & Coherent Claim	3
Grammar, Cohesion, and Organisation	2
Thesis Statement	2

General Instructions:

- i) Avoid summarising the texts
- ii) If you are directly quoting from a novel or stories, please cite the page number. For example, Jamal mentions that they are leaving for Mohammadpur for an "adventure of a lifetime" (p.23).
- iii) Please submit on time. The deadline for this assignment is 12:00 A.M. If you are travelling outside of Dhaka, kindly leave me an email. The portal will be permanently closed tomorrow at 6:00 A.M.

iv) No usage of LLMs to curate your sentences or paraphrasing in general is permissible.